Dear Mr. Shackford:

I was pleased to read in the paper the other day that you had received the 1960 William the Silent Award for Journalism for your articles published a year ago on the Netherlands.

I should like to add my congratulations to the others you are receiving and express my pleasure that this well merited honor has been bestowed upon you.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Shackford:

I was pleased to read today that you had received the 1960 William The Silent Award for Journalism for your articles published a year ago on the Netherlands.

The award of $1,000 and a gold medal, as well as this high distinction must be as pleasing to you as it is to your many friends. It is a good pre-Christmas gift.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
